

- "What keeps despots, dictators awake at night, what topples evil empires is the little person who goes into the square in the middle of town in the dark of the night and scrawls on the wall, 'No.' "

- "I want to say to you, we are the 'No' that God scrawls on the wall," Tobin said. "We are the 'no' to a nation who is heartless, who would deport people separating them from their families and their loved ones simply because they are victims of a broken system."
- Cardinal Joseph Tobin, Archbishop of Newark
