

What We Do:

- o Offer presentations, programs and days of reflection on peace, justice and ecological integrity.
- o Support and collaborate with other groups that share similar values.
- o Provide resources and educational opportunities for Sisters of Charity, Seton Associates, and other interested people especially related to our current priority issues of immigration, human trafficking, and ecospirituality and sustainability.
- o Advocate for legislation that promotes human dignity, peace, and sustainability.

Programs Offered:

The Office of Peace, Justice and Ecological Integrity

...publishes a monthly e-newsletter JustLove with information, reflection and suggestions for action. You can find the current issue of JustLove on the Sisters of Charity website www.scnj.org.

...sponsors Las Samaritanas, a ministry for Hispanic women that offers retreats and workshops on self-esteem, women's spirituality, domestic violence and immigrants' rights.

...provides seasonal prayer and reflection resources on themes of peace, justice and ecospirituality.

...is available for workshops, days of reflection and other programs, in both English and Spanish, on Catholic Social Teaching
Climate Change
Ecospirituality
Human Trafficking
Immigration Reform
Multi-cultural Awareness
Non-violence and Peacemaking
Los talleres, retiros y otros programas estan disponibles también en español.