

WAY OF THE CROSS

VIII. Jesus Meets The Women Of Jerusalem

- L. We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you
- R. Because by your holy Cross, you have redeemed the world.
- L. A great number of the people followed him, and among them were women beating their breasts and wailing for Him. But Jesus turned to them and said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me, but weep for yourselves and your children" (Luke 23:27-8)
- R. But now I stand with a group of women and children who offer sympathy to You, O Son of God. You showed that You could read their very hearts. "Weep not for Me." You said, "but for yourselves and for your children"
- By the merits of such thoughtfulness fill my heart, dear Jesus, with such great self-forgetfulness, with such true charity. (BMT)
