I was told everything happens for a reason and that the good die young. I remember many of Aunt Pat's favorite sayings and how she showed us the difference between the truth and a lie. Everything really does happen for a reason. Fire will burn so that nature has the chance to grow. Aunt Pat said many times that where there is love there is family. She also joked that where there was a Panera's we must stop.

The truth Aunt Pat talked about opened my eyes to the fact that we don't have control of our world. God has a plan for us from our birth to our death but He permits us to make our own choices.

We may choose to be singers, writers, and parents. Aunt Pat chose to help others and to spread kindness and love to everyone. It is because of her choice that each of you are sitting in this church returning the love she gave to us. Thanks.

Aunt Pat always put others before herself. I remember how at Thanksgiving dinner she made sure everyone was served before her. She was so happy to see the smiles on our faces and the exchange of laughter and fun. Aunt Pat brought the family closer together by the many selfless things she did. She proved to be not only a good aunt but a good teacher.
