

PLEASE PARTNER WITH US IN THE MISSION OF BOUNDLESS CHARITY

Your prayers and financial support enable the Sisters of Charity to continue the Mission of Boundless Charity. Here are some of the ways that you can help:

GIFTS TO MINISTRY/GENERAL SUPPORT directly benefit the broad ranging ministries of the Sisters of Charity. Sisters serve in vital ministries in healthcare, education, and pastoral and social services in thirteen U.S. states as well as in El Salvador and Haiti. The Sisters continually adapt their ministries to meet the changing needs of God's people, including young people, old people, homeless people, immigrants, urban poor, migrant workers, and people struggling with illnesses and dependencies.

GIFTS TO RETIRED/INFIRM SISTERS provide necessary support to the aging sisters who have devoted their lives to service. Although these sisters have retired from full time ministry, they continue to participate in the mission of boundless charity with their steadfast prayers and spiritual devotion. Many of our retired sisters are now elderly and infirm and receive skilled nursing care at The Villa in Florham Park.

GIFTS FOR THE REFURBISHMENT OF HOLY FAMILY CHAPEL help the Sisters of Charity preserve and maintain the beautiful chapel which serves as the spiritual home and active heart of worship for the Sisters of Charity, the College of Saint Elizabeth, the Academy of Saint Elizabeth, and the surrounding community. Holy Family Chapel contains the crypt of Blessed Miriam Teresa Demjanovich, the Sister of Charity who was beatified on October 4, 2014.

GIFTS FOR THE MINISTRY IN EL SALVADOR support the ministry of Sister Peggy O'Neill and the Centro Para la Paz in Suchitoto, El Salvador. The mission of Centro Para la Paz is to develop and promote a culture of peace through the arts, creativity, imagination and cultural exchange. Activities include weekly classes in art, a variety of instruments, dance and English.

GIFTS FOR THE MINISTRY IN HAITI support the ministries of Sister Dianne Moore and Sister Janet Lehmann. Sister Janet is engaged in full time ministry at Notre Dame University School of Nursing in Jacmel, Haiti. Sister Dianne is based in Latremblay, where she ministers to meet the needs of the most vulnerable women, children, and families.
